Albert Sunny is an Assistant Professor in the discipline of Computer Science and Engineering at the Indian Institute of Technology, Palakkad where he has been a faculty since 1 st June, 2018. Prior to joining IIT Palakkad, Albert was a post-doctoral researcher with INRIA Sophia Antipolis, France where he worked on issues related to adaptive streaming of videos in cellular networks. He was offered the DST INSPIRE faculty fellowship and SERB Indo-U.S. postdoctoral fellowship in 2016 and 2017, respectively. Since 2021, he is driving R&D, upskilling and entrepreneurship initiatives at IIT Palakkad Technology IHub as the Project Director of TIH ICS.

Albert received his B. Tech. degree in Electrical and Electronics Engineering from the National Institute of Technology, Calicut, India, and M. Sc. (Engg.) and Ph. D. degrees from the Department of Electronic Systems Engineering, Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru, India. His current research interests are in modeling, analysis, and control of wireless, social and transportation networks.