

Kiran Shesh is a business professional with over 30 years of industry experience mainly around Industrial products in the manufacturing sector. Prior to associating with TIH-IoT, he successfully led business operations and expansion initiatives, including P&L responsibility. He has worked in MNCs like Sulzer and Monsanto. His last corporate position was Managing Director of Pall India and VP, South East Asia.

In 2016, he started his association with IIT Bombay with the role of CEO at IITB Wustl Research and Educational Academy. The academy ran a joint degree EMBA programme in partnership with Washington University in St. Louis. Later, he joined the Educational Outreach of IIT Bombay where he took up the initiative of taking executive education online in partnership with EdTech companies.

Kiran started his career as a sales professional and moved up the ladder developing other skills like Business Finance, Operations, Team Development leading up to General Management. He is a certified (PCC) leadership coach from International Coach Federation (ICF) and has actively volunteered for the institute's causes. He has also held the position of Director at IIT Bombay Alumni Association.

Kiran is a Chemical Engineer from IIT Bombay and holds an MBA degree from SJM School of Management, IIT Bombay. He is a recipient of the Distinguished Service Award from IIT Bombay.